

Profile

I am an organised, hardworking and reliable individual with excellent communication skills. I am highly motivated and enjoy a challenge, aiming to manage competing priorities without compromising the quality of my work. I believe I am an outgoing individual with great problem-solving skills that works productively in a team situation yet mindful to use my initiative when required. As well as being an effective team player, I am a quick learner who can prioritise work to meet deadlines and can work well under pressure.
